

My family and I enjoy listening K-Love. In fact it is a very important listening part of our lives. We are located in Hardy, Arkansas and we are concerned if our local K-Love station access would be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster.

K-Love broadcasts encouraging and uplifting messages and an important part of my family's Christian listening. I believe they serve are community well.